The local Christian bookstore is hosting a toy drive benefiting families from Waterloo, Iowa City and Cedar Rapids. (Photo: Trevor Hughes/The Register)Buy Photo WINTERKAMP — A Christian bookstore is asking the community for more than toy donations at its first toy drive to benefit families from Waterloo, Iowa City and Cedar Rapids. "It's a time for the community to come together and help others," said Jessica O'Neill, a member of the Christian Society in Waterloo and driver of the toy drive. "Christmas is around the corner and we just thought of the obvious, how people have been hurting so much." O'Neill said it's the store's first toy drive, one that will raise money for the Salvation Army and a third-party clothing provider. The store, called Cathedral Square Books, is at 150 N. 11th St. in downtown Waterloo. The hope is to collect toys and clothing donations until Sept. 7, O'Neill said. "We're just spreading the word out that anyone can help, 570a42141b
