9 Ways to Make Your Shoes A Stylish Part of Your Look!

Sneakers are the most common footwear we wear, and we can never go wrong with a nice pair of shoes. They are a part of our wardrobe and seem to be ever-present in our life. Footwear is worn every day and we get to see so many different types of them. Some are casual, other are more formal, and they come in so many styles and colors that they keep us updated and fashionable. In this article, we will mention some of the ways by which we can dress our most comfortable and fashionable shoes. Here they are:

1. Keep them Clean Shoes are used daily, so they need to be cleaned with all care. One of the best ways to get them clean and fresh is to soak them in a solution of water and a mild shampoo or soap. Allow them to soak overnight or for at least a good four hours. When you take them off, wipe clean with a soft, damp cloth.
2. Use Shoe Trees The shelf life of shoes is short, unless you have placed them in shoe trees. Shoes get dusty and stay so when they are not cleaned regularly. You can use them to maintain a better and clean environment in your closet and they will last longer.
3. Make them Look Good Most shoes that we wear get used after a few months, and so they need to be cleaned regularly. Make sure that you get the best shoe cleaner to keep them looking good for a long time. For instance, a leather cleaner will make

What's New in the?

JRememberme is a Java Application that helps to bring reminders on your desktop. You can have reminders for yourself or for others with various settings like reminder date, duration, frequency, text message, or an email. All reminders can be handled from a list which can be sorted. Nokia live messenger is one of the most convenient messaging app for this generation of smart phone users. There is no significant reason to think about its usefulness since it is ubiquitous throughout the world. No matter whether you use a Smart phone or a feature phone, you can not avoid its range of services. We all have the habit of using it for chatting but here the lack of third party apps and stability issues makes us think twice about it. Most of the users have a strong belief that what they are doing is right but do they really know their rights? The reality is that we are being observed more closely than ever, in both our personal and professional lives. The consequence of this observation is, however, a root cause for data mining. What exactly is data mining? It is the collection and subsequent analyses of information about people. The fact that data mining impacts your information privacy is a common concern when you are mobile phone user. There are instances where you can share your personal data with the marketers and cell phone companies if you are not cautious enough about it. Also, it is possible for someone to track your activities, whereabouts, banking and shopping habits. The most common and harmful is data mining which is the practice of extracting data from your electronic devices. Your mobile phone can be an inventory of all your personal data like text, contact information, calendar, e-mail messages, etc. This information may be captured by tech companies and used by marketers to target advertisements in accordance to your browsing habits or by employers to use it to screen employees. Lets have a look at some of the instances which can put your data at risk. Anonymous Activities monitoring Every time when you open or close a website or email it will send information like your IP address to the servers. The server then will gather the information which can be used to create a profile of your activities. This data is sold by the app to marketers and ISPs. Delete your information by mistake Are you that much cautious to delete your information from your mobile phone? The issue here is that when you delete your information from your mobile phone, the app companies will not be able to track you anymore. However, it will store the
