David Cropper, Republican candidate for Secretary of State, has won the Secretary of State Republican Primary with 53.8% of the vote in the Riverhead section of Suffolk County RIVERHEAD – David Cropper, Republican candidate for Secretary of State, has won the Secretary of State Republican Primary with 53.8% of the vote in the Riverhead section of Suffolk County. More than 53,000 voters in this region participated in the Countywide Primary on Tuesday. Cropper, a former member of the United States Congress representing the 7th Congressional District, a former New York State Assemblyman, and owner of a successful real estate business, is running unopposed in the Nov. 6 General Election for the office of Secretary of State. “I am a strong Republican who values fiscal responsibility, honesty and ethics,” said Cropper. “I will work hard every day to do what is best for New York State. I am proud to have spent my entire life in Suffolk County, and I am honored to be endorsed by the Suffolk County Republican Committee. I will be committed to putting the interests of our community first and will continue to fight for the great people of Riverhead.” Jim Turner, Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, received 37% of the vote. No one else received more than 4% of the vote. Turner has been involved in local politics for almost 30 years. Turner was the former Chairman of the Riverhead Republican Organization, and was elected to the Riverhead School District Board of Education for four terms. Turner, who has been a resident of Riverhead for more than 30 years, brings a strong background and understanding of the local issues and concerns to the Secretary of State office.
