AutoCAD is priced on a subscription basis for desktop and mobile applications. All AutoCAD subscribers have an online account that can be accessed via a web browser. The subscriber can connect to the online account to view or update drawings, manage usage rights, report problems, etc. AutoCAD 200, released in 1994, was the first major revision of AutoCAD, making the AutoCAD 2000 product line possible. The new release was well-received, but did not have the same impact on the market as AutoCAD 2D. Before the release of AutoCAD 2D, many companies used early releases of AutoCAD to develop 2D products. AutoCAD 2000 did not have the market share that Autodesk was hoping for, and AutoCAD 2002 was not released until 2001, 16 years after the original release of AutoCAD in 1982. What is AutoCAD? AutoCAD is a computer-aided design (CAD) software application developed and marketed by Autodesk, Inc. Originally designed for drafting. AutoCAD is a multi-platform integrated application that can be used on a PC, Mac, tablet, and mobile device. There are two different editions of the software: AutoCAD and AutoCAD LT. AutoCAD LT is a freeware alternative to AutoCAD that comes with a trial version of AutoCAD. AutoCAD LT is not cross-platform and only runs on Windows. In 2011, Autodesk introduced AutoCAD WS, a web-based version of AutoCAD. AutoCAD WS is a web-based, online version of AutoCAD that makes it possible for non-desktop users to work on projects using a web browser. What is AutoCAD 2D? AutoCAD 2D is a discontinued product from Autodesk that was introduced in 1998. Although the release of AutoCAD 2D was a key milestone in the product line, the product was not a success and was discontinued in 2002. The product contained two editions: AutoCAD LT and AutoCAD 2D. AutoCAD LT was a free version that was similar to the AutoCAD product that was first released in 1982. AutoCAD LT ran on computers with Windows 3.1 or Windows 95. AutoCAD LT included only 2D drafting tools, and

Scripting languages AutoCAD supports the following scripting languages: AutoCAD's scripting language was originally a proprietary language called LISP (Lightweight Implementation of Scheme), but the current scripting language is called Visual LISP (VL). The current release of AutoCAD is no longer compatible with LISP. VBA, .NET and ObjectARX are Visual Basic for Applications, .NET and ObjectARX are programming languages. Als AutoCAD supports a limited set of Artificial Intelligence programming models for application extensions: The AutoLISP API for AutoCAD is proprietary. It is available in addition to the Visual LISP API, although they are not compatible. The ObjectARX AI programming model is the most recent of the non-visual scripting languages. It can be used to add AI to any command. AutoCAD 2016 also supports the following scripting language for third-party integrations: Autodesk Exchange Apps" See also List of CAD software Comparison of CAD editors for 3D modeling Comparison of CAD editors for 2D drafting Comparison of 3D modeling software Comparison of vector graphics editors History of the drafting

From North Korea to Riyadh, Tehran and Moscow, as part of an accelerating conflict of the 21st century, the role of the US dollar is going to play a key role in the changing of the geopolitical order. Are we witnessing the last days of the Dollar? North Korea began to use a special type of plastic to store its cryptocurrency. The first exchange of cryptocurrencies with this currency is planned for the second half of next year. North Korea, a country which doesn't recognize the US dollar, plans to introduce its own cryptocurrency. Hezbollah is one of the most controversial figures in the Middle East, where it has become a growing concern for Israel. However, the blocs of the Shiite movement are spreading all over the world. The group has even taken part in a war in Yemen, in support of the Houthi rebels. Striker Mark Viduka has agreed to join newly promoted League 1 side Bradford City until the end of the season. The 31-year-old has signed a one-year deal at Valley Parade, and will be available for Saturday's game with Exeter. MVP-winner Viduka made his name with the New South Wales Roar in the A-League before moving to Blackburn, where he went on to score 51 goals in 187 appearances. In 2007 he joined Leeds United, where he played 30 times and netted three times before being released in 2009. Viduka said: "I'm excited about this new challenge and about playing for Bradford City, who have put their faith in me. I'm looking forward to testing myself and trying to help the club climb up the league. "It's been an interesting journey for me and I've enjoyed it, but now I'm looking forward to this new challenge. "I have a strong relationship with a number of the players in the Bradford team, who are also excited about the opportunity to push for promotion." Viduka has had one or two trials at other clubs since leaving Leeds, but manager Gary Bowyer says that despite having the experience of the World Cup, the Kiwi is a player he
