Field of the Invention This invention relates to an improved mobile food dispensing apparatus and to a method of use thereof, and more particularly, to a mobile dispensing apparatus adapted for the provision of a variety of foodstuffs such as ice cream, frozen yogurt, gelato, and the like, and to a method of use thereof. 2. Description of the Prior Art In order to obtain a chocolate ice cream topping with a unique texture in a relatively quick manner, it has heretofore been proposed to provide a kit consisting of different types of dispensing materials, such as a dispensing device adapted to receive a carton or a container of frozen ice cream and an extruder tool having a plurality of movable hollow formers, which is movable relative to the carton or container so as to intermesh the dispensing device and the container to impart movement thereto in a predetermined pattern. A more recent approach to the provision of toppings with a unique texture is disclosed in U.S. Pat. Nos. 3,912,943 and 3,926,858, both to Rodgers. For some time, a need has existed in the food dispensing art for a mobile food dispensing apparatus designed to provide hot chocolate frozen desserts such as frozen coffee ice cream in the same manner as the frozen liquid coffee ice cream disclosed in U.S. Pat. No. 3,926,858, but which is capable of dispensing a substantially broad range of other foodstuffs such as ice cream, frozen yogurt, gelato, and the like.Arthrogryposis Multiplex Congenita: A Rare Disorder.
