Bollywood actor Ajay Devgn has almost completed 29 years in the film industry. Amid the glamour and glitz, Ajay, however, has been one of those actors or the only actor to maintain an intense persona. For those who have grown up seeing Bollywood films throughout the '90s, will be well aware of his power-packed and most remarkable performances. Contrary to the kind of films with which he made his Bollywood debut, the actor has proved his mettle with regards to versatility. He has mastered varied genres action, comedy, drama and even romance. One of the most bankable actors, Ajay has developed a set of fans for his performances in comedy films like Golmaal. From playing the role of a Police Inspector in Singham to essaying the role of Tanaji Malusare in his latest film Tanhaji: The Unsung Warrior, Ajay Devgn has been winning hearts time and again. As the actor celebrates his 51st birthday, heres a look at his top 10 defining roles from the three-decade-long career: Actor-writer Piyush Mishra, who had written dialogues for the film, reacted to Ajay's post. He wrote, Shukriya Ajay (Thankyou Ajay). A fan wrote, One of the best characters you have played till now, while another commented, I have watched it many times and still got goosebumps. Thank you sir for giving full justice to great Bhagat Singh character. A third one wrote, Your one of the finest performances sir. In this crime-drama blockbuster, Ajay Devgn gave one of his most brilliant performances. He played a lethal gangster by the name of Sultan Mirza who held a kingly status in the city of Bombay. The film explored the gangsters love life with actress Rehana and his fall with the rebel sidekick, Shoaib. Devgn's performance was highly intimidating and perfectly brought the lethal character to life.
